TO THE PROPRIETORS Of the PHUNNY PHELLOW A TO THE PROPRIETORS of the PHUNNY PIEBLLOW.

Gentlemen—In accepting the very liberal offer you have made me to become one of the contributors to the "Phunny Phellow." I am constrained to state that, while my labors on the "Phunny Fhellow will occupy much of, my time, I will nevertheless still continue the News Agency Business as heretofore. I desire in his place to pronounce as wholly gratious and false the rumes now going the rounds, that I am about to engage in are entirely new business; for you will agree with me that "a brief in the hand is wey, the won in the bush;" in other words, the extensive business a am now conducting is more profitable than the empty horize which even a "Phunny Phellow" pen may yield. I abull write exclusively for the "Phunny Phellow" and I here, elseire to intimate to my friends at home and around that my first contribution will be prepared in time for the edition of the labels of the present menth.
